3-D Scanner

The NextEngine™ Desktop 3-D Scanner generates high definition 360° surface scans of objects. Using Studio software, surface scans can be used to build digital solid objects that can be “printed” in the 3-D Printer.

The 3-D printer/modeler and scanner are available for use (fees apply for 3-D printer) in the Engineering Communication Studio, 2302 Patrick F. Taylor Hall.
